IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD

CARTIER INTERNATIONAL A.G.,

Opposer,

v.

LANCE COACHMAN,

Applicant.

Opposition No. 91209815

MOTION ON CONSENT FOR EXTENSION OF TRIAL PERIOD

Opposer and Applicant jointly submit this motion on consent to extend Opposer's trial period for 60 days and to re-set the remaining dates in the proceeding. Opposer's trial period is set to expire on September 3, 2015.

Pursuant to the Board's Order dated August 5, 2015, the parties are required to provide a showing of good cause in the form of a progress report when requesting further extensions. The parties currently are working on finalizing a stipulation to govern the introduction of direct testimony at trial. The procedures set forth in the stipulation are intended to streamline the parties' trial periods, thus conserving time and resources. The parties will be submitting their stipulation to the Board shortly. However, because the procedures set forth in the stipulation will determine how Opposer's trial period will be conducted, the parties jointly request that Opposer's trial period be extended for a period of 60 days so that the stipulation is in effect before Opposer introduces its trial testimony.

Dated: August 14, 2015

Respectfully submitted,

FROSS ZELNICK LEHRMAN
& ZISSU, P.C.
